Foreword

It is with great pride and sense of achievement on the part of the 1962-63 annual staff, we dedicate this annual to the task of recording very precious memories of our high school years.

It is hoped that as its well-worn pages are thumbed, many pleasant memories will come to mind.

In years to come, our schoolmates will be scattered all over the world, and the only contact we will have will be through our annual.

We hope that in the future your annual will bring back memories of all your high school days - memories filled with victory and defeat, happiness and sorrow, ecstasy and depression; memories of the first day of football practice; the yells of cheerleaders; pep rallies; Friday morning assemblies; the Junior-Senior banquet; the cafeteria line; the trip to Washington; the graduation exercises.

Oh so many other activities could be mentioned! These are only a few to remind all of us that

THIS IS OAK HILL HIGH
THIS IS THE STORY OF A HOPE . . . AND A MEMORY

Dedicated to

. . . Mr. Gary Hammond, who has given his time so freely for the benefit of beautifying our school grounds, and for his kindness, patience, and wisdom shared with everyone with whom he meets.

as any to denote the manners of a Gentleman."

KAY SPAINHOUR
"To know her is to love her, and
to love her but forever.
Nature made her what she is and never made another."

DAVID WHISNANT
"He doesn't say all he thinks."

Class History

In the fall of '59 we, the class of '63, entered Oak Hill High School as unpruned saplings, waiting for our (enriching chemicals) English, math, science, physical education and health, home economics, and agriculture.

Our advisors that year were Mrs. Antoinette Moore, Mr. Larry A. Huffman, and Mr. Gary Hammond. After a wonderful experience of being green freshmen, we began our Sophomore year as sturdy saplings.

That year we were a little more alert about what was going on. We were fortunate to have as our advisors Mr. Larry A. Huffman and Mr. Max Harris.

Being aware that we were growing sturdier, we entered our junior year knowing that we were well on our way to having branches of culture. This year was filled with experiences which we will never forget. We set out into the business world to make our riches by selling our "World's Finest Chocolate," for our Junior-Senior Banquet which we cherished very much, because we had worked very hard for this event. Another experience was ordering our class rings. Also, that year, five students received the honor of being marshals in the Senior Graduation. They were Clifton Barrier, chief; Martha Lequire; June Kuhne; Judy Carswell; and Martha Norman. Our advisors were Mr. Troy Shook and Mr. Max Harris.

Finally we approached the point where we had come to be fully mature trees and soon would begin our lives outside of Oak Hill High. We entered our senior year as 38 happy seniors. Miss McCreight was our capable leader. That year we recalled many memorable events. First, that we received our class rings which made us feel more like dignified seniors. The Junior-Senior Banquet, our class trip to Washington, and our graduation was finally upon us before we knew it.

This history will end when we receive our diplomas, but another history will begin as we open the door on the wider horizons of our life.

Class Prophecy

While sitting on our toadstools on Mars Boulevard we decided to make an unscheduled flight to Earth to visit our old home. While the pilot, June Kuhne, was out fueling up the plane, I, Judy Carswell, now a Universal Airlines Stewardess, prepared for take-off. Fasten your safety belts - Oak Hill here we come.

Having arrived near the thriving metropolis of Oak Hill, we traveled up the beautiful Interstate 181, designed by Johnny Burnette. We saw many beautiful horses and were told that it was Jerry Gragg's thoroughbred farm. We were getting low on fuel so we stopped at a huge filling station and found another classmate, David Whisnant, operating it. On our way again, we passed The Oak Hill 500 where Jimmy Avery, head mechanic, and Gailord Banner, test driver, were preparing to make a test run of the Avar. We would have liked to stay for the race but, we were running short of time.

Next we stopped at the home of the former Pam Annis, who is now a beautiful housewife and wonderful mother. We asked her about the people who had gained fame in places other than Oak Hill. Kathy Masters is the hair stylist for the First Lady, Doug Jaynes is editor of Playboy. Tony Sisk is this year's Presidential candidate. Good luck in the coming election, Tony.

Pam told us that Martha Norman is a math professor at Duke. Linda Beck is very proud of her "Admiral" husband. News just reached us that Clifton Barrier won the Nobel Peace Prize, and Wayne Johnson added another gold record to his growing collection. We were very proud to find that our classmates did so well.

We had gained some well-known personalities around Oak Hill, too. Jace Ollis was voted the best-dressed man in Morganton. Kay Spainhour and Reba Barrier are shocking the patients and personnel at Grace Hospital with their crazy nursing antics. France Harmon makes beautiful baby clothes for her family of four. Rebecca Conley is a secretary at Henredon Furniture Co.

Our own talented Van Clontz is a shoe designer for Poll Parrot Co. Dottie Clay is following in her mother's footsteps as a seamstress at Lazarus. Martha Lequire is a teacher at Oak Hill Consolidated Schools. Alma Ollis and Vikki McFalls are up-and-coming businesswomen around Morganton.

Several of our friends have married and have families. Linda Huffman is the wife of a handsome movie star. Jean Bolding is now Mrs. Isaacs (Just like she wanted). Linda McDade and Brenda Harrison are still neighbors and have a husband and two children we find. Jerry Shook is married and the father of ten.

Carolyn Bailey is now a famous missionary who is working in the Far East. Dianne Drum is secretary to Mr. Max Harris, now president of King's Business College.

Our class has gained fame in the field of athletics. Donald Kincaid has broken all the old track records and is now the World Champion. Gary Carswell is now head coach of the Universal Champion Redskins. His best player is All-American, Bob Clark. Eddie Perry is now a member of the Globetrotters (Fingers came in handy, huh, Eddie). Our own Oak Hill Bulldogs are the All-Conference winners under the coaching of Garrett Queen.

Well, we must return to Mars and get back to work, but we certainly enjoyed learning about our former classmates. This trip has brought back fond memories of happy days gone by. May they always remain in our hearts.

AN ATHLETE'S PRAYER

Our God, our one Head Coach divine,
 Guide us through life's playing time.
 Teach us how to play the game
 Only in a sporting vein.
 Endow us with the will to win,
 With a spirit striving from within.
 And Coach, teach us as we live and learn
 To expect only what we rightly earn.
 Quitting never; though discouraged, be
 Ever true to self, to team, to Thee.
 Keep us clean in speech and thought,
 In doing, and in living as we ought.
 Of hate and envy keep us free,
 For more deserving man than we.
 Prepare us now in friendly strife
 On the playing field of life.
 And someday, Master, Coach Supreme,
 Let us play on your great team.

Alma Mater

On a hill in fair Burke County
Stands the school we love;
Oak Hill High, renowned and glorious
School of friendships, dear.

In the years when we have left her
We shall often recall;
Days well-filled with fun and laughter
Which we'll never forget.

Dear ole Oak Hill, we will ever
To her name be true
In our hearts we'll always hold her
And her teachings, too.

That's All Folks!
